NATIONAL GATHERING HERE.

Meet Here in April.

The national gathering of the Sons of the American Revolution will occur in this city in the Chamber of Commerce on April. 30th, when there will probably be 100 dele-rangements, consisting of Mesers, J. A. White chairman, Virginius Newton, T. N. Rutherford, Thomas Atkisson, and A. T. Harris.

Mr. W. W. Henry called upon the Governor in the interests of the society, and asked for the use of the House of Delegates to hold the sessions of the body in, but the Executive was compelled to withold his consent, as it has been the custom not to allow the hall to be opened for such purposes during the recess of the Legislature. It was then decided to hold the meetings of the body in the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Murphy left the city last night, but Mr. Haskins remained over, and another conference will be held to-day, when all arrangements will probably be completed for the annual meeting, which is to be held here upon the invitation of the Virginia Society.

It is expected that a son of General Grant and Channecy Depew will be present on the occasion.

The officers of the National Society are as follows: President-General, General Horace Porter, New York: Vice-Presidents General, General J. C. Breckinridge. Covenant is in receipt of a letter from Rev. J. Caivin Stewart, who has been at Clifton Springs for nearly two months, in which the popular paster writes that he is improving steadily, and hopes soon to be entirely restored to health.

Rev. Mr. Stewart's physician also sends gratifying intelligence as to his condition, and says he could return to his work here in a short while, but in order that the full benefit of the improvement in his health may be realized, it is thought best that Mr. Stewart shall rest for awhile.

The church has offered to extend the pastor's leave for six months, and it is not expected that he will return to the dity to remain permanently until the fall, when it is hoped and believed that he will be entirely well and prepared to carry on his good work in the Master's service in this city.
